AMPHRC ACKNOWLEDGES ANOTHER MAJOR GRANT FROM THE HELLENIC FOUNDATION

Chicago - AMPHRC Founder George Mavropoulos and the board of directors wish to express their gratitude to the Hellenic Foundation of Chicago for its generous contribution of $40,000 grant. According to Mavropoulos, "The Hellenic Foundation grant is a significant boost to our fundraising efforts for the completion of the documentary." He adds, "We are very pleased with this contribution to enable us to proceed with the production and final stage of the documentary."

The Hellenic Foundation's last year's $20,000 grant enable us to complete the script for our major documentary film entitled, The Great Catastrophe: The Forgotten Genocide of the Greeks of Asia Minor, Pontos and Eastern Thrace."

The second grant is specifically earmarked for the production and completion of the documentary. The timeline for the production is set by the end of 2018.

The AMPHRC documentary project is very much in keeping with the mission of the Hellenic Foundation which seeks the"promotion and enhancement of awareness and appreciation of the extraordinary contribution of the Hellenic heritage to the advancement of freedom and humanity."
